Contest Night at Grange

The meeting of the Northfield Grange next Tuesday evening will be "Contest Night", with Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Hoxie in charge. There will be a very special "surprise" and it is hoped that the attendance will be extra large for the occasion.

The Community Social club held a very successful dance in the town hall Wednesday evening. Goodnow's orchestra of Orange played.

Flag Showing Is Suggested for the Fiftieth Anniversary

It is fitting that at this fiftieth anniversary celebration of the founding of Northfield Seminary by the world famous evangelist and educator, Dwight L. Moody, that citizens of his home town should recognize it, and it is therefore recommended that citizens display the country's flag from Friday through Monday, the days of the celebration when hundreds are to be guests here and many more will drive in for special events.

"PROMOTION DAY" A GREAT SUCCESS

A goodly audience of parents and friends gathered for the "Promotion Day" exercises at the town hall on Thursday. An excellent program was rendered.

Rev. R. E. Griffith gave the opening prayer and Rev. Frank W. Pattison the benediction. Dorothy Quinlan played the processional. Jack Webber was the class marshal; the class colors were green and gold; the class flower, the buttercup and the class motto "Onward and Upward." Among the numbers was a piano solo by Virginia Mann, original story by Helen Hanna, original essay by Laurence E. Marcy, pianologue by Elizabeth Kansand, songs by Christine Gray and Agnes Plotczyk and the address was by Marvin E. Jones.

"I don't see why having your car overhauled should be such a depressing experience."

"You don't, eh? Well, it was overhauled by a motorcycle cop."

Better come to Morgan's Garage in the first place and save the trouble."

SPENCER BROS. NOW HAVE FINEST FORD GARAGE IN SECTION

The extensive enlarging and remodeling of Spencer Bros. Garage on Main street, Northfield, is nearing completion and already a good idea of how the completed establishment is going to look can be obtained. We hope to have an illustration of it when all is complete.

This gives Northfield the distinction of having the most modern and finest equipped authorized Ford garage in this section of the state. There are over 8500 square feet of floor space and a capacity for 70 cars. The Haarmann Steel Co. of Holyoke furnished the steel and Leavis and Bolton were the contractors.

WINNERS OF PRIZES AT COOKING SCHOOL

Many women have profited by the cooking school conducted under the auspices of the Greenfield Electric Light and Power company held this week Monday and Tuesday at the town hall. Mrs. Allene Burns proved an expert demonstrator and gave much that was helpful in food lines, especially with an electric stove. Mrs. F. W. Pattison won the cooked dinner on Monday and Mrs. L. H. Lazelle the freless electric cooker. On Tuesday Mrs. J. W. Field won the dinner and Miss Anna Bartus the electric toaster.

SHOOTING STARTED AT DARBY FARM

The Northfield Rod and Gun club of which Ernest Howard is president and Donald Finch the treasurer, have begun their summer target practices. Each Tuesday they hold these practices at the Darby farm on Maple street. There are 25 members in the club and they get much pleasure in contests of skill in shooting clay pigeons.

NORMAL SCHOOL PRINCIPALS HOLD CONFERENCE HERE

A conference of principals of Massachusetts Normal schools, with their wives, was held at the Northfield Hotel Tuesday and Wednesday of this week with Charles H. Herlihy of Fitchburg Normal schools director. Payson Smith, commissioner of education for this state, was present. There were 25 in attendance at this conference.

DEGREE FROM CONN. COLLEGE FOR MISS MURIEL KENDRICK

Miss Muriel Kendrick, daughter of Mrs. J. F. Kendrick of Highland avenue will be graduated with an A. B. degree next Monday, June 10 from Connecticut College at New London, Conn.

She graduated from Northfield Seminary in 1924 entering Connecticut college in 1925 where she majored in English and minored in history and psychology.

In her freshmen year Miss Kendrick was a member of the hockey squad, was house secretary and took part in the freshman pageant. In her sophomore year she was again a member of the hockey squad and in her junior year made the class hockey team, the basketball team and track squad. She was also elected class historian, a member of the Quarterly Board, a member of the college year book board and of the class executive committee.

In this her senior year she was on the hockey team, was editor-in-chief of the college year book and was on the board of the Quarterly review. She wrote the class prophecy. Miss Kendrick also was a member of the class play-reading contest and has had many poems and stories printed in the Quarterly and year book.

Mrs. Kendrick goes on Saturday to attend her daughter's commencement where also her daughter, Miss Marion Kendrick is a freshman at Connecticut college.

HISTORICAL SOCIETY QUARTERLY MEETING

The Northfield Historical society held its quarterly meeting on Tuesday evening at Alexander hall with vice-president L. R. Smith as chairman.

Hon. H. C. Parsons of Boston, who is a guest in town and who is writing the history of Northfield, was present and spoke on the results of his researches in this line. He made a special request for the loan of old photographs relative to the town, and of autographs of prominent former residents for use in the history.

The authentic diary of Charles LeRoy Preston has been presented to the society by Mr. Keith of Boston. This is a valuable and most interesting document of this great work of the World War accomplished for our government by our native son. The historical society accepts it with much gratitude and it will be placed with their other valuable papers and historical articles.

The society recommended citizens to display the country's flag during the Northfield Seminary fiftieth anniversary celebration.

Children's Sunday

Children's Sunday was observed last Sunday morning at the Congregational church with the usual delightful program. The children of the junior department of the Sunday school and those of the district Sunday schools had seats in front of the pulpit and they gave a varied program appropriate to the day.

The church children gave a dialogue with tableaux entitled "The Happy Road," 25 taking part which was well presented.

At this time certificates were presented the class which has completed its required work in the junior department and was then promoted to the senior department.

The Go-To-Church band received their pins at this service also, 70 boys and girls receiving the rewards. There were 11 who had not missed a Sunday morning service for 15 consecutive terms of four months each.

The following parents brought their children for dedication at this time by the pastor, Rev. F. W. Pattison: Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Severance, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Stearns, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. William Everts, the latter from Schnectady, N. Y.

The decorations which were in charge of Mrs. C. L. Johnson were pink azalias, lady-slippers, lilies of the valley. Canary birds were heard throughout the service from cages hung from the galleries. Mrs. Pattison, Mrs. Montague, Mrs. N. Fay Smith and Mrs. E. F. Howard directed the program.

CHANDLER HOLTON TO GRADUATE FROM AMHERST COLLEGE

Chandler H. Holton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Holton of Highland avenue will be graduated from Amherst college on Monday, June 17, with the degree of B. A. He has been on the honor roll throughout his college course.

In his junior year he was elected a member of Phi Beta Kappa, honorary fraternity. In his senior year he made the Honor Fifteen. He had honorable mention in astronomy, mathematics, history and German and majored in English, mathematics and astronomy.

He is a member of the college Glee club.

He prepared for college at Northfield High school, graduating in 1923 and at Mt. Hermon school where he graduated in 1925, standing second in the class of 56 members.

Mr. and Mrs. Holton and his aunts, the Misses Charlotte and Amelia Hausman will attend his commencement.

SOMETHING ABOUT THE I. G. A. WHICH KELLOGG'S STORE HAS JOINED

The Independent Grocers Alliance to which Frank W. Kellogg belongs is stated to now number over 12,000 storekeepers, an army that is finding recruits daily all over the land. More than 6000 of its members have proven with facts and figures that the average increase in their volume last year was more than 60%, with a healthy increase in profits. Although only a little more than two years old these results indicate that this movement is one of the significant developments of our present distribution for the very good reason that the basis of all is that buyers get standard goods of the greatest possible variety, at an appreciably lower price than ever before, with a much happier and better service from the merchant.

The principal difference between the stores of a cooperative association, such as the I. G. A. and others, and the corporation chain stores, is that all the money made is kept in circulation in the home town of the individual proprietor, instead of a considerable percentage of it going outside for central management operations and dividends. And banded together in this large way, with all the opportunities for close and economic buying, rapid turn-over of stock and scientifically planned stores, there is no reason why just as good or even better prices can be made to the purchasing public as the corporation-owned chain store systems. This is of course the acid test for when all is said and done, the buyers will inevitably go to the stores where they can get the most for their money, regardless of any local sentiment. And nobody can blame them for we are living in a sternly competitive age, where each cent in a dollar counts.

Without going into technical details it may be stated that an association, such as the Independent Grocers Alliance, is able to materially reduce the distributive costs of individual operation, do a larger business upon the same amount of capital as formerly and so increase their annual percentage of profit. By passing along a share of these new economies to their customers in the way of lower prices generally and specials in certain goods at seasonable times, they thus benefit the entire community. And continuing as heretofore to be a local store, whatever profits are made are kept and spent in the community so served.

THE NON-CONFORMIST

By THOMAS ARKLE CLARK
Dean of Men, University of Illinois.

Speaking of one of our well-known political leaders who has constantly been on the other side no matter what issue was being considered or what action was being advocated, one writer says of him:

"He is a non-conformist and proud of it. His cue is to find out what those associated with him think is wise, and then to do his best in embarrassing them in realizing the success of their undertaking. He is of the team but never with it. He never wants to go in the same direction as the rest, at the same time. It seems though he makes it his business to find out what his supposed friends and allies want to do, and then opposes it."

A great many people feel that it shows wisdom to find fault with whatever is being done, to pick flaws in whatever seems to have in it virtue or merit, to pull in the opposite direction. They have no idea of the meaning of co-operation; they have never realized the power of team work.

Robbins is a nonconformist. He thinks most of our social customs poppy-cock, and he considers it a virtue to ignore them. For years he refused to wear a necktie. It was only when golfers and young sportsmen began running about with their shirt collars open that Robbins took to cravats. No one has ever been able to get him into evening clothes. He wears an old-fashioned cut-away coat while doing his chores about the house, and gets into a business suit when he is dressing for any formal function. He eats his meals with a spoon and drinks tea from a can. and even lets himself a reformer, while other people look upon him as something of a boob.

Young Spradling is another variety of the nonconformist. He thinks Mr. Volstead was crazy when he conceived prohibition; he pays no attention to the law. Nothing gives him so great a thrill as to drink publicly and copiously. Thirty-five miles an hour, the limit prescribed by law for motoring along the highway, is a snail's pace, and Spradling hits twice that pace with impunity. When he is arrested he rails against the injustice of limiting his progress with stop signs and traffic laws. Anything which attempts to keep Sunday quiet and orderly puts him into a frenzy. Why is Sunday better than any other day, he'd like to know? Any such conventions as chaperons and early hours for retiring, and midvictorian proprieties he consigns to the lower regions.

Jones was trying out for the basketball team last winter. He had a theory of his own as to how the game should be played, a theory which was quite at variance with the ideas of the coach. He wanted to play his own game in his own way, and so far as he could see, the other fellows were all wet, which is merely another way of saying that they didn't know what they were doing. Jones didn't make the team because he refused to conform.

It is true in life that the nonconformist usually is relegated to the side lines.

Deerfield

DEERFIELD'S WEEK OF HISTORIC SHOWINGS WILL ATTRACT CROWD

An opportunity to inspect Deerfield's most celebrated historic buildings, Frary House, 1689; the beautiful Brick church, 1824, and an authenticated and almost perfect copy of the famous Indian House, 1698, will be given the public during the week of June 9. The hours are 10 a. m. to 12; 1 p. m. to 5.

Frary House will be publicly opened Friday and Saturday. It is the oldest house in Franklin county and together with the little gambrel roofed ell of Willard House is all that is left of the Deerfield of 1704 when French and Indians swooped down from Pine Hill to burn, kill and carry captives thru the snow back to Canada. It was built by Samson Frary in 1689, or before, added to and used as a tavern eighty years later by Salah Barnard. In 1890 it was intelligently restored by Miss C. Alice Baker, sixth in descent from Samson who built it.

Stories cling to it; ghosts of course; Benedict Arnold coming in 1775 to seal a bargain with Thomas Dickinson for 75,000 pounds of beef and drinking to it either in the bar or from the "parlor cupboard"; Salah Barnard actually marrying the baby daughter him when he marched off to war; and whose mother was told to keep her for he later tending "bar" below while his pretty wife danced in the exquisite ball room above! That ball room is faithfully preserved and the old house has charms of its own. Both the parlor and dining room of the 1689 period and the bar and ball room of that of 1763 are interesting and full of loveliness. The Old Indian House door, now in Memorial hall, with its tomahawk hole, thru which the owner's wife was shot by Indians, suggests the terrible night of February 29, 1704. Built in 1698 and finally torn down 144 years later, it has been accurately reproduced by William Gass and Son, builders. The overhanging second story, the enormous ten foot chimney with its fireplaces and ovens, the giant rough hewn timbers pegged rather than nailed, floors laid beneath the eaves, mitered clapboards, weathered shingles, ornamented gables, old hinges and latches, sixteen paneled windows, simulated pallade in rear and three railed fence in front, suggests that the Old Indian House itself has come to life. In the four front rooms on this occasion, the famous Deerfield Industries will be exhibited.

The Brick church is greatly prized by builders and architects for its suspended ceiling, box pews, perfect proportions, high mahogany pulpit, and temple-like atmosphere. Just to sit quietly for a few seconds in this historic building is a treat to hundreds of visitors who come annually to this shrine. For 198 years, the gilded weather cock, previously on the fourth this, has overlooked the Deerfield in-Meeting House of 1729 and now on habitants as called to meeting by the great bell clanging in the belfry, they have wended their way up "Meeting House Hill" thru the wide open doors.

Pat stopped to read a sign in front of Max Goldstein's place. "Ladies' Ready-to-Wear Clothing."

"Shure, an' it's about time," mused Pat as he walked on.

BOSTON & MAINE ISSUE NOTABLE "HISTORIC" INTERESTING BOOKLET

Historical dispute as to whether buff and blue, blue and white, or red and white were the Colonial colors is being avoided by the Boston and Maine railroad. A new booklet "New England Historic" just issued by the railroad as part of its program to make New England attractions better known to the country, features each of these color combinations, and adds details of events of some significance which are recalled for the first time in such a booklet.

Noting that the "rails of the Boston and Maine are laid on historic ground," the booklet touches upon many centers of historic lore from old Boston itself and its interesting environs, through the old seaports on the North shore to Portland and beyond; through the Merrimack Valley to Concord, N. H., and north and westward through Concord and Lexington to the Beautiful Deerfield valley and along the Mohawk Trail.

Editorial

IF THERE SHOULD EVER BE ANOTHER WAR THE FRONT LINE TRENCHES WILL BE THE SAFEST PLACE

As one aftermath of Memorial Day we note in the columns of some of our contemporaries several communications from readers, calling attention to the Kellogg Pact that we are never to go to war again and deploring the fact that our method of celebrating the day is really to glorify war under the guise of honoring our soldier dead.

This would irritate us if it were not that our experience has been that the prolific newspaper letter-writers of the piping times of peace express only weird individual opinions and rarely reflect the opinions of any considerable majority.

The Kellogg Pact was a fine gesture and, as such, has our deepest respect and sympathy. But you can't stop fighting by voting against it. The only way that we know of is either to lay down and surrender at once when attacked or turn to and fight back until somebody is licked to a standstill.

We do not anticipate trouble with the sixty odd so-called sovereign nations of the world who are interested with us in the Kellogg Pact and we believe that our Memorial Day observances simply illustrate to them our close kinship in thought and deed. They all do much the same thing themselves in one way or another: honor the memory of those who both lived and died up to the courage of their convictions. Moreover, we believe that the leaders, at least, of these sixty odd sovereign nations with us in the Kellogg Pact are mighty glad to realize that we do still continue to honor our soldier dead and, also, if you want it expressed that way, do thus glorify war.

For most of them think and, also, many of us believe that our efficient military assistance and cooperation is going to be very, very necessary with them, in two or three or four, or, possibly, five years from now in stemming the tide of the "Greatest War" which many Biblical students seem to place for 1932, followers of the cycle theory for about 1935 and some regular folks for any time in between these years.

That this war, when and if it comes, would be quick and disastrous, with practically no time at all for any preparation, adequate or otherwise, goes without saying. Moreover, this time the front line trenches and the ships upon the high seas will be the safest places of all and the last to be menaced by any enemy. Chemical warfare will have snuffed out the civilian population and destroyed the cities and industrial works of the entire country before armies or navies get into action.

For let it not be thought that the devilishly cunning leaders of the hordes of the proletariat of Russia, Asia and Africa, etc., are going to waste any time in diplomacy and the passing of notes back and fro, when once they are ready to act. The Kellogg Pact is only one of the many "scraps of paper" to them. No, as an Irishman would be credited as saying, the first thing that you will likely know about this war starting will be that you will know nothing.

While we have not with our own eyes seen such an insignificant item of the whole likely enemy as the millions of the Red Army of Russia (about which so many have written in great detail) yet we have read and heard and talked with those who should know to such an extent that, personally, we believe this vast world proletariat now lacks only its super-leader (or Anti-Christ, if you please) and it may be possible that one of the several who would appear to be qualifying for this title may any day emerge, as really such.

And so, we hope that this nation, despite the pacifist letter-writers, will continue to honor our soldier-dead, even to the extent of glorifying war: for this time, if war should come, they must all be ready,..... men, women and children..... everybody..... to die a soldier's death themselves.

"And how can man die better
Than by facing fearful odds,
For the ashes of his fathers,
And the temples of his gods?"

GOVERNOR ALLEN SIGNS IMPORTANT BILL

Establishing State Industrial Commission to Aid All Sections

Governor Allen has signed the bill establishing the Massachusetts Industrial Commission, the purpose of which will be to promote the industrial, agricultural and recreational progress of the state.

Governor Allen said in part: "It is a pleasure to sign this measure, because of my firm conviction that the establishment of the Mass. Industrial Commission will result in the stimulation of definite economic progress in this Commonwealth. It assures the development of comprehensive views of matters affecting our economic progress, make possible a greater coordination of effort on the part of all interests, both public and private, and creates a body through which the power and prestige of government can be brought into cooperation with the elements of our economic life."

Present also at the signing were States Commissioner of Agriculture Arthur W. Gilbert, who was prominent in support of the measure, and General E. Leroy Sweetser, commissioner of labor and industry. These two commissioners will be members ex-officio of the Industrial Commission. Others present were Dudley Harmon, executive vice-president of the New England Council, who attended as a guest of the Mass. Council members and William W. Davis, chairman of the legislative committee of the Massachusetts Hotel association.

Mrs. Abbie S. Darling

Mrs. Abbie S. Darling, widow of the late Oren Darling, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Foster in Lowell on Friday, May 31. She was 88 years old.

Mrs. Darling was twice married, her first husband dying many years ago. Her second husband, Oren Darling, died last September. She went to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Foster last fall and has been staying there since.

The funeral was held at the Darling home here on Sunday afternoon, Rev. F. W. Patterson of Northfield having charge of the services. Burial was in the cemetery here.

Mrs. Darling leaves five children by her first marriage, Mrs. Charles Foster of Lowell, Mrs. Bertha Hall of Erving, Miss Rheta Barrett, who teaches school in Medford and Charles and Rufus Barrett of Somerville. She also leaves a step-son, Lester Darling of New London, Conn.

Mrs. Darling was a good friend and neighbor, well liked and respected by all who knew her. The community feels its loss, and extends its sympathy to her children.

Last Sunday's Services

Rev. and Mrs. Makepeace of Northfield had charge of the services in Union hall last Sunday evening. Mr. Makepeace had a sermon for the older ones and afterward Mrs. Makepeace gave a short talk to the children. At the close of the meeting pins were given members of the Go-To-Church band who have had a perfect attendance at church the past four months as follows:

$3 Pin, Charles Leach, Jr.; $4 pins, Dorothy Leach, Clayton Glazier; $6 pin, Hazel Tenney; $8 pins, Grace Tenney, Warren Billings, Lyle Glazier, Lewis Wood; $9 pins, Esther Tenney, Edith Tenney, Elsie Tenney, Marian Leach and Kenneth Leach.

MEETS TRAGIC DEATH

A sad accident occurred here last Friday afternoon when Daniel Desmond of Greenfield, employed as a linesman by the Greenfield Electric Light and Power Co., slipped on a pole and came in contact with the high tension wires and was electrocuted. He was working on the line at a point about opposite C. L. Gilbert's grain store where the widening of the new state road made necessary the moving of the power line. A particularly sad part of the accident was the fact that he was to be married on the following Tuesday.

Scouts Victorious

The Boy Scouts baseball team went to Conway last Saturday and played the Scout team of that place, winning by the score of 18 to 6. The Conway team made twelve errors and this together with thirteen hits by our boys gave the Farms team an easy victory.

The score by innings:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
N. Farms	3	0	4	0	3	0	2	2	16
Conway	0	1	0	0	0	4	0	1	6

Batteries: N. Farms, C. Scoble and C. Glazier; Conway, Wells and Hassell.

Any Scout team or other boys' team wishing to play the team here, please get in touch with the manager of the Scout team, Melvin Glazier.

School Memorial Exercises

The local school held Memorial exercises at the schoolhouse last Wednesday afternoon before a good sized audience of parents and friends. Afterward the cemetery was visited and graves of the dead soldiers decorated with flowers.

At a meeting of the Ladies' Benevolent society in the library last Tuesday afternoon both teachers here, Miss Dorothy Wright and Miss Evelyn Atwood were given showers. Both of these popular teachers are engaged to be married.

Mrs. Rosetta Roys, a former resident of this place visited at Frank Howe's over Memorial day. She was accompanied by her cousin, Mrs. Whitman. Mrs. Roys now lives in Belows Falls, Vt.

Rev. D. A. Hudson visited his cousin, Mrs. Eva Stacey on Memorial day.

Mrs. Lizzie Thomas and family called at Frank Howe's on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Oxten and son, Dick and Mr. and Mrs. W. Allen Luey and son, Tom, of Port Washington, L. I., N. Y., spent the week-end with the W. D. Lueys.

Miss Eleanor Luey is spending a few days with her grandparents.

Mrs. Mary Briggs and Henry Blinn and family of Moores Corner called at Harry Glazier's on Sunday.

West Northfield South Vernon

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Willey and son, Brainerd of East Northfield were Sunday callers of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Stone.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Hunt and daughter, Mrs. Ray Green and her two daughters, Misses Harriet and Gertrude of Worcester, Mass., spent the week-end at their summer home here, Elmshade Farm.

Mrs. G. F. Skillings spent Monday with friends in Shelburne Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. William Smith and son, Wm. Jr., recently moved back to Bernardston.

Mrs. James Corser has recently sold her home, the Splann house, to Mr. Gaudette of Vernon. She and Mr. and Mrs. Spear and family are moving into the house just south of H. E. Bufum's store, which the Smiths have just vacated.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Brewer and cousin, Miss Marion Brewer and Mr. Kinney of Waltham were Sunday guests of R. W. Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. Gebro, who were returning to their home in Shelburne Falls from Putney, Vt., were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cushman.

Mrs. F. H. Leavitt, who has been visiting relatives in California for several weeks has recently returned to her home at the Vernon Home, improved in health.

A. A. Dunklee and son, E. W. Dunklee attended the Windham County Sunday school convention held at West Brattleboro last Friday. E. W. Dunklee, who has been the president, was re-elected for another year.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cushman went to Bellows Falls on a pleasure trip last Thursday.

Mrs. Mary Wood and daughter, Miss Florence and her son, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wood and Edward Gould of Henniker, N. H., spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary Woods' mother, Mrs. A. W. Wheeler.

Mrs. Mattie Little returned to her home in Manchester, N. H., last Saturday after having spent the winter with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wheeler.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Allen and son, Robert, attended the "Old Home Day" which was held in the South Newfane, Vt., Baptist church in Williamsville, Vt., last Sunday.

Clinton Emery has been quite ill with septic sore throat ever since last Friday. Arthur Jackson was called home to do the chores and work.

E. W. Church, who has been ill with blood poison, in his right hand, is much improved.

A reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Jillson last Sunday, 20 being present. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Austin Jillson and daughter of Concord, N. H., Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Jillson and Mr. and Mrs. Adin Jillson and daughter of Turners Falls, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Lester Jillson and family of West Dummerston, Vt., Miss Vina Jillson of East Orange, N. J., and Miss Houghton and Hugh Houghton of Putney, Vt.

The services at the A. C. church next Sunday will be held as follows: 10:45 a. m., sermon by the pastor, Rev. Geo. E. Tyler. Church school at 12:05 p. m. In the evening the South Vernon church and the Union church of Vernon will unite and hold a service at the Vernon chapel at 7 p. m. All services on standard time.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Streeter have recently bought a new Ford sedan. Frost has nipped some of the early gardens in town, the thermometer registering 29 degrees above zero, the fore part of June 3rd.

The State Line 4-H Garden club met at the South school house Monday evening for their last meeting of the summer.

Mrs. R. E. Bruce has a most beautiful plant called Johnsonia Amyrillia which is now in blossom. It only blossoms once a year. It has three large showy, red and white striped bell shaped, lily like blossoms on top of a long stem with a fourth bud to open soon. It is a flower of rare beauty, well worth seeing.

Mrs. Alice Holton

Mrs. Alice (Pierce) Holton, 47, wife of Edward E. Holton of West Northfield, died about 5 o'clock Monday morning in the Brattleboro Memorial hospital where she underwent an operation last Wednesday for gallstones when 57 were taken out. She has not been well for sometime.

She was born in Chester, Vt., a daughter of William and Mary (Hazeltine) Pierce. She married Mr. Holton in Chester in 1903. Mr. and Mrs. Holton lived there for several years before moving to West Northfield about 17 years ago.

Besides her husband she leaves five children; Lawrence, who is employed by the Springfield, Mass. Gas and Electric Co.; Elsie, who is employed in Brattleboro in the office of the Holstein-Friesian association; Eunice, who graduates this month from Northfield High school and Edward, Jr., and Gilbert, who live at home.

Mrs. Holton was held in high esteem in her community and was loved by all who knew her. She was extremely devoted to her home and family.

The pastor, Rev. George E. Tyler, called upon her at the hospital the day after she was operated upon, finding her very weak, but alloting upon the time when she would be able to return home to her family.

Gill

ELECTRIC LIGHTS WANTED BY GILL

The recent petition of a number of residents of Gill to the Greenfield Electric Light and Power company to furnish lights for Gill Center has been answered by the company. It is understood. At the time the petition was received by the company, the officials asked for time to consider the proposal and to gather data for costs.

It is stated that the power company has submitted the following proposal to the petitioners: The company would agree to run a line from Factory Hollow, the present terminus of the line, to the school house in Gill Center. The cost of constructing this line would be $1,800 per mile and the company would have to be guaranteed a return of 25 per cent on the investment for a five-year period.

It is estimated that eight miles of line would have to be built, which at a cost of $1,800 per mile would mean about $3,600 a year for five years, which sum the company would have to be guaranteed before the company would consent to build the lines.

The income could be guaranteed by individuals, a sufficient number of customers, by the town installing a sufficient number of street lights, or by a combination of any of these methods.

The contemplated lay-out would connect the end of the Factory Hollow lines with the end of the line at the Mt. Hermon schools.

DIPPING INTO SCIENCE

The Moon Minus Atmosphere

Atmosphere may be termed a gaseous envelope made up of myriads of atoms and molecules of gases. Unless a body is sufficiently large that its gravitation holds these atoms to it, it is void of atmosphere. The earth is sufficiently large, but smaller Mars has less dense atmosphere, while the very small moon has little at all.

ELLWYN MILLER TO REPRESENT VERMONT

Ellwyn Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Miller of Vernon, has been chosen as one of four 4-H club members to represent Vermont at the third national 4-H camp at Washington, D. C., from June 19 to 26. This is the highest honor that can come to a 4-H club member in Vermont and is a recognition of the high quality of the club-work which he has done during the past nine years.

Ellwyn Miller, who is now a student at Mt. Hermon, was a charter member of Windham county's first Pure-Bred Calf club, which was organized in 1921 with A. L. Miller as leader and Miss Villa Cameron, county club agent. He won his membership certificate that year. In 1922 he was a member of a team which demonstrated the Babcock test, winning first place at the Valley fair and third at the Twin State fair. The next year his team showed how to prepare stock for exhibit, winning first place at Brattleboro and second at the Twin State fair. In judging work he won first at the Valley fair each year and at the Twin State fair he won second in 1922 and first in 1923 in competition with the entire state.

His calf exhibit won first prize at the Valley fair two years and in 1923 won first in the open class in competition with the adult breeders. He was county calf champion and won state prizes twice. In 1923 he attended State week at Burlington.

The Calf club did not reorganize in 1924. In 1927 Ellwyn Miller was active in organizing the Vernon Soil Tillers club, of which he has been leader since. The club has made trips to both the Twin State fair and the Valley fairs and won numerous prizes with his help. At Camp Waubanoag he has been camp counselor and clerk for two years, in which positions he has made many friends from all parts of the county by his friendliness and ever-ready help. In 1927 he was awarded the camp prize as the "best example of 4-H spirit."

Millers Falls

John P. Egan

John P. Egan, 72 years of age, died Sunday morning at his New street home. He was born in Manchester, England, and came to this country with his parents, when very young. They lived in Claremont, N. H., where Mr. Egan received his education.

In 1886 Mr. Egan was united in marriage to Miss Carrie Moulton of Northfield Farms. Since that time they have made Millers Falls their home.

Mr. Egan was employed by the Boston & Maine and Central Vermont railroads and was for many years the local baggage master. He retired from active service about five years ago after 40 years of faithful service. He has been in poor health, following a shock.

Besides his wife he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Kate Robinson of Newport, N. H., and Mrs. Sadie Makepeace of Leominster, N. H. He was a member of several organizations, among them Bay State lodge of Masons, Valley lodge of Odd Fellows and the Millers Falls Brotherhood.

The funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Congregational church and was in charge of Bay State lodge of Masons. Rev. Charles G. White, pastor of the Congregational church officiated, assisted by Rev. A. A. Brondson of Baldwinville, a former pastor. Burial was in Highland cemetery.

The committee appointed by Moderator Arthur H. Porter to have charge of the building and equipping of the two additional rooms for the Highland school are as follows: John A. Taggart and Herbert J. Ward of this town; Philip Jacobus, William P. Argy and Dr. William J. Pelletier of Turners Falls.

In observance of their 30th wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hodgson of Grand avenue entertained about 30 of their friends last Saturday at the Greenwood Tea room. Games, dancing and a dainty luncheon was served. Each guest was presented a souvenir. Mr. and Mrs. Hodgson received many beautiful gifts.

Miss Mary Hayes of Highland avenue is entertaining Miss Dorothy Allen of Boston for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Spring of Orange were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Spring of Forest street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Verner attended the family reunion of Mrs. C. J. Holland at North Hinsdale, N. H., Memorial day.

The work on the new road between Millers Falls and Northfield Farms is progressing rapidly. Kelleher Bros., who have the contract have had favorable weather the past two weeks and used it to good advantage. The road is about half finished and should be through by the end of June or early in July. The new piece of road between Erving and Millers Falls is also under construction. The state is trying to eliminate all the curves and is a very hard and long job. Over 30 carloads of asphalt will be used for this job and will not be completed before the fall.

Rev. Allan A. Brondson of Baldwinville is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Stebbins of Bridge street.

Mrs. Wallace Pickett of High street is making a speedy recovery from injuries sustained some weeks ago to her hip. She will be home from the Farren hospital shortly.

The Highland school closes today for the summer vacation. The Erving Side school will close June 21st at which time the Turners Falls and Greenfield High schools will close.

Mrs. Mary Kavanaugh, who has been spending the winter in Greenfield with her son and daughter, returned here to the old homestead. Mrs. Kavanaugh is 86 years of age.

Several local people attended the dance in the Northfield town hall on Wednesday night.

Misses Marion and Olive McCullough went to Northampton last week on a shopping tour.

The drinking fountain at the corner of Lester and Pratt streets has disappeared within the last two weeks. This fountain is in a very handy place and is a very good accommodation to persons and passings autoists. The Millers Falls Improvement association will try and have another one placed there.

Erving

AIRPORT AND AIR MARKING PROGRESS

Abram Rosberry, formerly of Erving and brother of Selectman George T. Rosberry, who is president of the Millers Falls Board of Trade, has been selected as chairman of the special committee to supervise the survey of the Montague Plains to determine their suitability for airport purposes. An official of a large plane corporation inspected the site recently and termed it an ideal location.

Postmaster A. J. Formhals has received inquiries from the Boston Chamber of Commerce and mail transportation route makers at Washington relative to the chances of having the name of the town painted on the roof of some local building, where it can be seen by passing airplanes. Mr. Formhals is willing to use the roof of his garage if no town or factory movement is made to comply with this request to let Erving be known "above."

Son—You say you often helped a lady to alight when you were young?
Dad—I certainly did.
Son—Then why do you object so now to women smoking?
Dad—Women in those days didn't smoke, son, when I helped one to a light it was from a buggy.

The son had broken off the lamp post.
"See here, chump," said his dad. "If you must collide, collide with another motorist. You might stick him for the damages. You can't collect anything from a lamp post."

Turners Falls

Signs for the Fillers

Another step in the plans for establishing an airport at Turners Falls was taken on last Thursday when two large signs were painted on the roof of the head-gate building of the Turners Falls Power and Electric company. These signs will serve as markers for airmen and are visible for long distances. The letters are ten and one-half feet high and one and one-half feet wide. They are painted on a black slate roof and are orange in color, thereby conforming with the requirements of the government in this respect. The first coat of paint was applied on Thursday and the second coat and also a finish of varnish has been applied.

The gate-house is situated at the end of the dam and as both sides of the roof are painted the signs are visible for planes flying from any direction. All aviators follow the Connecticut river and all through routes pass directly over this town. The dam has long been used by flyers as a marker and now the name of Turners Falls will appear on all flying charts.

The painting of the signs was brought about through the efforts of the aviation committee of the Turners Falls Power and Electric company officials.

Bits o' News

Fred Sulda, popular manager of the Atlantic & Pacific store on Third street, has been granted an extended leave of absence by the company.

It was announced in St. Andrew's Episcopal church that the mortgage on the church had been reduced to $800 and that more than one half of the amount required to liquidate the mortgage had been paid in or pledged.

Moderator Arthur H. Porter has appointed the committee who will have charge of the building and equipping of the two additional rooms for the Highland school in Millers Falls. The sum of $19,000 was appropriated by the citizens at the special meeting for the purpose of building these additional rooms. The committee is John A. Taggart and Herbert J. Ward of Millers Falls, Phillip Jacobus, William P. Argy and Dr. William J. Pelletier of this town.

Children's day exercises will be held at the Methodist church Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. The major part of the service will be taken from the program "Children of the Bible" and will deal with that subject.

Several members of the Sunday school will participate. The choir will assist in the exercises. The public is cordially invited to attend this special service.

The Turners Falls chapter of the O. E. S., has received an invitation from the Themis chapter, No. 30, of Athol to attend a matrons' and patrons' night on Friday evening.

Charles A. Farwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Farwell, who has been spending a three weeks' vacation with his parents, will leave New York on Saturday to return to his work. He is an assistant engineer with the United Fruit company, and will go to the west coast of Guatemala to engage in a new development there.

The opening band concert of the season will be given this evening at Unity park by the Turners Falls Military band. An attractive program has been arranged by the director, Leonard A. Bemis. The program will commence at 8:15 o'clock.

Herbert—Pardon me, that I forgot to appear at your party.
Marion—Oh, weren't you there?

THE SHIP THAT WAS A NAVY

THE frigate CONSTITUTION, most famous ship in the world, Shrine of the American Navy, is being rebuilt at the Navy Yard, Boston, Massachusetts. In the very same dry dock that she christened in 1833, having been the first ship to enter it, she is taking a new lease on life. Thanks to popular subscription, restoration is now 50 percent completed.

Over $700,000 has been raised towards rebuilding of the CONSTITUTION; approximately $190,000 is required to complete the Fund. This money is being raised through the sale of beautiful ten color lithographs of the ship, measuring 18 3/4 inches x 22 3/4 inches, at 50 cents each.

Restoration should be completed within a year. Once again equipped as she looked at the height of her brilliant career, the CONSTITUTION will put to sea, this time on a cruise of peace, carrying her historic message to Americans in every principal port in the country.

Scientific Cleaning Puts End
To Old Fashioned Rug Beating

Mrs. Helga Iverson shows Miss Frances Jones why heavy furniture on rugs should be moved frequently.

April showers may mean May flowers and poetry for the lover, but they mean just another spring cleaning time for the American housewife. For the good old American custom of cleaning from the coal bin to the attic still holds sway during the blossom month.

Spring cleaning and May are natural allies, and didn't just happen to be linked by custom. The month was predestined to assume a scouring aspect when Jupiter Pluvius gave his showers and mud to April. The grime brought into the home during April's stormy weather makes the rugs and carpets dirtier than at any other time of year. Walter E. Olson, president of the Olson Rug Co., said recently in addressing a group of club women at the Wilton plant.

"The back-yard clothes line bending under the weight of a dirty rug is just a picture in the 'way back when book. The modern American housekeeper sends her rugs to some reliable cleaner once a year to have all the rough particles cleaned from the body of the rug.

"If the housewife takes good care of the floor coverings by careful sweeping, not beating, one thorough cleaning a year is plenty to keep rugs fresh and new looking. A good suction cleaner helps put pressed down tufts back into place. It is important to turn rugs completely around often to get rid of marks made by heavy furniture.

"Old fashioned beating tender only the surface dirt and quite often broke the back of the rug sending it to curl and lie crooked on the floor. The average life of floor coverings has been increased two or three years by modern cleaning methods."

FUELITE MAY BE JUST THE ANSWER TO YOUR PROBLEM

Henry W. Taylor, local hardware dealer, says you can have gas in your home no matter where you live. Where illuminating gas is not available, Fuelite is the answer. If you live in the country, or on a street where ordinary city gas is not available, it's probably the one modern home necessity which you envy those who enjoy its comfort, its convenience, the freedom it gives from the drudgery and dirt of any substitute. Now you need worry no longer. You can have Fuelite gas. A Fuelite gas installation is easily made in any house. The cost is moderate and it is efficient, economical and a wonderful comfort to every housewife. Fuelite is a gas and is piped to your range, hot water heater and wherever else needed through ordinary gas pipes. You simply turn on the gas and light it. It burns with an intensely hot flame, with perfect combustion. No smoke or smell.

A Fuelite outfit consists of two steel cylinders in a neat cabinet. It is placed in an inconspicuous place outside your home and piped to wherever needed. One cylinder is used at a time. When one is empty, you simply turn on the other and notify your nearest agent, who replaces the empty cylinder with a full one, thus assuring you of uninterrupted service.

Fuelite outfits are simple but strong in construction. They are guaranteed for five years against defective parts and ordinary wear. They are practically indestructible. Each outfit is regularly inspected by competent service men, for which there is no charge. Fuelite service fills a long felt need.

Fuelite gas is not a manufactured product, but purified natural gas, compressed in steel cylinders. It is not inferior to ordinary illuminating gas, and is far superior to that supplied in many cities. It burns evenly with intense heat. The cost of installation is very moderate. Fuelite gas in your home saves you a lot of dirt and drudgery and adds the touch of comfort that makes home-keeping a pleasure. You'll wonder how you ever kept house without it. Fuelite is approved by the Modern Priscilla proving plant.

A Fuelite installation in your home will not increase your insurance rate.

SEARCHLIGHT'S ESSAY ON THE FOUNDING OF TOWN OF HINSDALE

The Founder of Hinsdale
Col. Ebenezer Hinsdale

In 1704 a band of Indians accompanied by a few Frenchmen from Canada came upon a small settlement at Deerfield. The settlers were taken by surprise and were not able to protect themselves. Fifty were put to death while the remaining hundred and fifty were taken captives to Canada.

Among the captives was Mary Hinsdale, mother of Col. Ebenezer Hinsdale, who was born in England in 1706 after her return from captivity. His father was Lieut. Hahuman Hinsdale.

Col. Hinsdale lived in Deerfield and attended Harvard college in his youth and was later ordained as a minister at Boston.

About the year of 1731 he was appointed chaplain of troops stationed in Massachusetts for protection against the Indians.

Several families wishing to settle here asked Col. Hinsdale, who was then staying at Fort Dummer, to build block houses on the east bank of the Connecticut river, also to build a grist mill on the banks of a nearby brook about fifty rods downstream. This accommodated the settlers and garrison stationed at Fort Dummer.

The fort was probably built in the summer of 1742. It was situated about twenty rods southwest of the Liscom Homestead.

The block houses proved of great value and service in the frequent troubles with the Indians.

One reason why this valley suffered more than many others from the Indians was from its being on the direct route from Canada and Lake Champlain to Boston.

Col. Hinsdale was well known. His excellent education helped in many of the public offices he held. He was the main support of this town up to 1763. He was prominent in affairs, both of the town and church.

The first town meeting was held on September 25, 1763. In the second town meeting, March 1764, Col. Hinsdale was moderator. It is thought that no records exist of any town meeting before 1764.

The following offices were held by Col. Hinsdale: one of the assessors of the town, town clerk, and one of the committee to lay out public tracts of land within the town.

Hinsdale was mostly a farming and lumbering community and was closely connected with Deerfield.

Col. Hinsdale died after a long illness in 1763 at the age of 57. Ten years after a charter was granted Hinsdale.

His grave stone or tablet is a large flat stone about three feet wide and seven feet long. It is supported at each corner by a stone post. On it is a brief sketch of his life written in quaint old style writing.

It is estimated that the town of Hinsdale was established around the date of 1740.

Florence Butler.

HOLLAND FAMILY HAVE REUNION

The 10 children of Mrs. C. J. Holland of North Hinsdale, N. H., with their families and other relatives and friends numbering 58 in all, gathered at the home of Mrs. Holland's daughter, Mrs. William Shaw on Memorial day for a family reunion, it being the first occasion for 26 years when all the 10 children had been together. The occasion was developed into a joint celebration as the 35th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Shaw also was a feature of the day. A basket lunch was served on the lawn of the Shaw home and a baseball game furnished amusement for the crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaw were the recipients of a sum of money in gold from their relatives and Mrs. Shaw was presented a large wedding cake which later was served. A group picture was taken by Lewis R. Brown of Brattleboro.

Mrs. Holland, who is 78, was born in Bermuda, coming to the States 46 years ago next September. Mr. Holland, who was born in England, died in Athol, Mass., May 22, 1922. Mr. and Mrs. Holland had 10 children, all of whom are living.

The children, all of whom were present at the reunion with their families were: A. J. Holland of Epping, N. H.; Lillian, wife of C. W. Daniels of Athol, Mass., and daughter Priscilla; W. J. Holland of New Haven, Ct., and wife and grandson, Louis Holland; Charlotte N. wife of George Lehman of Leominster, Mass., and daughter, Janet; Mary, wife of C. J. Killay of Leominster and son, Kenneth; George Holland of Derby Line and wife and two sons, Louis and Milton; Gertrude, wife of Harry Reib of North Attleboro, Mass.; Benjamin Holland of Derby Line and wife and son and daughter, Russell and Ruth; Carl Holland of New Haven and wife and son, Carlton and Mrs. Shaw.

Others present, including grandchildren and great-grandchildren were: Kester Shaw of Rome, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Shaw of New Haven, Ct., Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shaw and daughter, Rosamond, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shaw and three children, Nanclanne, Alden and Vincent and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Shaw and son, Harry, all of Brattleboro; Mrs. Eva Choquet and two daughters, Marion and Phyllis of Athol, Mass.; Mrs. John Heath and daughter, Mrs. Edith Odell of New Haven, Ct.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Verner of Millers Falls, Mass.; Mrs. Stella Clifford and sons, Walter and Robert of Templeton, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Holland of New Haven and Miss Dorothy Smith of Newport, Vt.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Grotte and son, of Flint, Mich., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Holland Perham.

HINSDALE HIGH SCHOOL NEWS AND NOTES

The regular Thursday morning Assembly was held Thursday, May 23 in charge of Miss McCallum. Barbara Garfield of the 7th grade gave a short French poem. Meta McCormick, '31, gave a resume of "Les Trois Mousquetaires" by Dumas. The most striking event of the period was a Latin play, "Coriolanus" presented by the members of the class of '32. Those taking part were Richard Dodge, Owen McCormick, Frank Seredynski, Florence Butler and Blanche Rimbold. The play was splendidly produced and those participating gave their parts with much expression and vigor.

The Assembly last week held Wednesday afternoon instead of Thursday was devoted to patriotic celebration. First a short scene play, "Making the First Flag" was given by five members of the 7th grade. Several patriotic songs were sung by the school.

Commencement Schedule

COOK WITH GAS WHEREVER YOU LIVE

Natural Gas Comes Right to Your Door

Natural Gas For Use in Your Home Though You Live Miles From a Gas Line

USE FUELITE

Think of the convenience and pleasure of cooking with natural gas—just like the homes in the City.

You can have a gas range, modern in every particular. A turn of the valve and you are burning natural gas—quick, clean and efficient heat for your cooking. And likewise the best fuel you can have for the water heater and other gas appliances.

A WONDERFUL NEW SERVICE

Natural gas delivered to your door, wherever you may live. The fuel is natural gas, purified, and condensed into tanks. From the container (outside the house) it comes into your gas range and burns with a snappy blue flame—speedy, abundant heat for all of your cooking and baking. Ready for use at the turn of the valve—no pumping, no priming, no wicks, no lugging of coal and wood, no drudgery of ashes. Better Cooking made easier.

FUELITE gas is not a manufactured product, such as carbide or acetylene, but a pure natural gas taken directly from the oil fields of Oklahoma, where it is compressed, and then stored in steel cylinders, which are shipped to our various branches and distributors for our customers' use.

Lake Pleasant

At the Temple the dancing season opened here last Saturday evening with over one hundred couples in attendance. The music was furnished by Goodnow's Singing orchestra which has played for the dances here for six consecutive seasons, and is deservedly popular. The dances will be held each Saturday night until October with the same music.

Many applications are being received by Secretary Albert P. Blinn for the new camp meeting program and reservations are being made for accommodations during July and August. The fact that the Camp Meeting association is conducting the Inn this year is an assurance of good service at reasonable rates and the inquiries which the secretary is receiving proves that the public appreciates this.

Manager Lawrence P. Bennett will arrive June 15th and have the hotel in readiness for its formal opening on June 30th. The Temple Tea room and Highland Cafe are catering to early arrivals and the Home Comfort House with Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Connick as proprietors, is already open for guests.

U. S. Senator Arthur R. Gould made a week-end visit to the Lake accompanied by his secretaries, Miss Lena Batchelor and Miss Alma Freeburg.
They were enroute from Washington to Presque Isle, Maine, and were the guests of Mrs. Helen R. Turney during their stay here.

The Senator made an inspection of the Memorial bridge which has been constructed through the generosity of Mrs. Mary E. H. Butler and then called upon Secretary Blinn to express his appreciation of Mrs. Butler's generous deed and of Contractor Andrew Zak's thorough workmanship.

Sunday, August 4th and continue through the month, closing on Sunday, Sept. 1st. The most eminent lecturers and prominent psychics of America and England will be upon the program.

PHOENIX INSURANCE CO. MAKE FINE STATEMENT

The Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Co., Hartford, Conn., has just announced a substantial increase in the amount of dividends it will pay to policyholders on and after July 1, 1929. As a result of this progressive action by the board of directors, it is estimated that the total amount of dividends will be distributed during the ensuing year will be in excess of $3-600,000, an increase of about 6% over the amount that was contemplated under the former schedule of dividends.

In commenting upon the significance of this announcement which effects both old and new policyholders, President A. A. Welch said, "This is the fifth increase in dividends which has taken place since 1920. It comes as a result of the continued financial strengthening of the company which is due in no small degree to improved methods of doing business that have reduced materially the expense of operation. The total dividends payable this year will exceed the amount that would have been distributed under the 1920 schedule by approximately 43%.

Peaches—This Month's Economy

BECAUSE the California peach crop of last year was immense the price of peaches is far from immense—in fact, it is very low. So the economical housewife will see to it that the peach, either in halves or slices, is featured in her springtime menus.

When spring comes, one of the first things which is considered is salads—something to accompany the crisp lettuce and celery and chicory which fairly cries to be used. And, under the circumstances, what could be more delectable than the peach?
For your information, here are some recipes for

Peachy Salads

Jellied Peach and Cheese Salad:
Soften two tablespoons of gelatin in one-fourth cup cold water and dissolve in one and one-half cups boiling peach syrup. Add two tablespoons sugar, three-fourths cup diced, sliced peaches and one teaspoon lemon juice. Pour half the mixture into a mold which has been rinsed in cold water. Make small balls of cream cheese mixed with diced green pepper and paprika and arrange the balls on the gelatin.

Pour the remaining, semi-fluid gelatin into the mold and chill until firm. Turn out on a bed of lettuce and serve at the table.

Peach Cross: Mix chopped dates, raisins and nuts and fill the holes of eight canned peach halves with the mixture. Place peaches on lettuce, with the round side up.
Garnish with a spoonful of mayonnaise and lay two strips of pimento on the mayonnaise to make a cross.

Another stuffing for peach salads is boiled rice mixed with chopped peas and Russian dressing. Russian dressing is served on the peaches.*

SCHOOLS ADOPTING PRESSURE COOKER*Proves Solution of Rural School Children's Warm Lunch Problem.

Getting a hot dish for the children's lunch in rural school, is a problem that has been worked on by parents, teachers and school boards alike, because they all realize how much good this can do the children, especially in severe weather.

Its simple solution is found when a pressure cooker is added to the school equipment, because in this way the food can be prepared quickly, inexpensively and without adding a lot of extra work and responsibility to the teacher.

Soup is one of the best hot dishes to serve because it takes the place of a beverage and at the same time affords a great deal of nourishment. The bowl of soup should, of course, be supplemented by the child's own lunch box from home, with its sandwich, fruit and nuts. Bake beans are also good cooked this way.

Before the close of school the teacher will ask some three or four children to bring some one item each to contribute to the soup-pot—a soup bone, a vegetable chopped up, some beans soaked overnight, or whatever tomorrow's soup may call for. The parents' co-operation must first be won before this program can be started, and then care must be taken to see that the children are called on for supplies in rotation. Staples such as salt and other seasoning can be kept on hand.

In the morning the ingredients are placed immediately in the cooker and thirty minutes before the soup is to be served the pressure cooker is put on the fire—over the stove if there is no other heat available. By using the pressure cooker soup which would otherwise require several hours simmering can be prepared in half an hour and all the mineral salts and vitamins will be preserved instead of boiled away.

The resourceful teacher will have no difficulty in getting the children interested in helping and will make this an opportunity to teach them lessons in co-operation and personal responsibility as well as the more concrete lessons of simple cooking, the elements of food chemistry and the necessity for right eating. The increased alertness and attentiveness of her well-nourished pupils will more than repay the costs and effort involved.

To Wed an American

Miss Loranda Prochnik, daughter of the Austrian minister to Washington and Mme. Edgar C. Prochnik, whose engagement to Gordon S. Buck, of New York, was announced.

We have an old-fashioned idea, gleaned perhaps from our ancestors, that it is better to work for a dollar a day if one can't get two dollars a day, than it is to sit around in idleness because the work doesn't happen to suit our whim.

The faith possessed by Columbus that the world was round pales into insignificance beside that of the individual who believes that the Mississippi river can be made navigable.

We don't know much about it, we will admit, but our guess is that heaven will not have a gang of pavement wreckers who will come around two weeks after the gold pavement is down and dig it up to find a monkey wrench some plumber forgot when he put in the water system.

Electric Cookery Saves Labor

All types of ovens using fuels are ventilated with consequent evaporation of the natural moisture in the food. They necessitate your presence in a hot kitchen and constant attention to the cooking operation. The fuelless electric range eliminates evaporation and cooks by clock-work, leaving you free to devote your time to other things.

Electric cookery, the modern method of converting raw food into palatable dishes, is healthful, economical, clean and convenient.

The coming of the hot summer days emphasizes the discomforts of the old-fashioned cooking and the great advantages of the modern Electric stove that confines the heat within the oven and leaves the kitchen cool and comfortable.

fashioned four-poster bed. This curtain is of linen and was embroidered by the women of Northfield for Lucy Doolittle, the daughter of Rev. Benjamin Doolittle of this town, when she was about to be married to Simeon Chapin in 1785. The curtain is thus 164 years old, and is in excellent preservation. Miss Hubbard, the donor, says in her letter to the Library Trustees that the curtain has been handed down in her line of the Chapin family to the youngest daughter of the family until it has come into her possession.

Miss Hubbard also gave a copy of the Rev. Benjamin Doolittle's sermons. The volume is a large octavo, bound in leather, in a fair state of preservation. The name of the publisher and the date are not given. The first page of the volume, however, contains a poem bearing the definite date of January 1, 1748. The poem is in memory of his children who died young, the last mentioned being his son Charles, who died at Louisburg in 1745 at the age of 23.

The citizens of Northfield are quite familiar with the history of the Doolittle family. The writer is of the opinion that they might be interested in the ancestry of the bridegroom as it is set forth in our excellent town history.

Simeon Chapin was married on his twenty-sixth birthday. He was the son of Japhet Chapin, a soldier in Father Ralle's War, and Thankful Dickinson. This is that Japhet Chapin, who, at the age of 82, married as his second wife, Lydia, the widow of Rev. Benjamin Doolittle.

He was the grandson of Thomas
